Business last week in Maysville wa better than usual.

The speech Saturday night is now known as "Wadsworth's wail."

The Mt. Olivet Democrat has sus-pended publication. It was a good paper and ought to have been sustained by the folks in Robertson County.

Ms. Wadsworm's piteous, whining appeal to the people of Mason County to "take him up in their arms and carry him to Congress" was ludicrous in a high

Ir may interesting to know that the time when the "unarmed merchantmen" referred to by Mr. Wadsworth, were being burned on the ocean, was about the time General Sherman was burning the houses of non-combatants in Georgia Just about the same time we should say.

It is the general impression both among Democrats and Republicans that Mr. Wadsworth hurt himself badly by his Saturday night, speech. It was in decidedly bad taste and not what the people expected from the distinguished Sage of Sugar Loaf Hill. He snuffed defeat in the air and allowed his chagrin and anger to get the better of his judgment.

Mr. Wadsworth, on Saturday evening, when he referred to his record during the period that covered the war, and also to the war record of the editor of the BULLETIN, ought to have said that the BULLETIN, ought to have said that the difference between the two was that Mr. Wadsworth was sahamed of his and the editor of the BULLETIN was not. That Mr. Wadsworth's friends have had to apologize for him and no friend had ever found it necessary to do that for the editor of the BULLETIN.

Bothers, ought to have said that the difference between the two was that Mr. Madaworth was ashamed of his and the editor of the Bullerin was not. That Mr. Wadaworth's friends have had to apologize for him and no triend had evertound it necessary to do that for the editor of the Bullerin.

Mr. Wadaworth stirled have had to apologize for him and no triend had evertound it necessary to do that for the editor of the Bullerin.

Mr. Wadaworth stirled have been consented to run for Congress that by common consent both parties would take thin up and elect him without much opposition, but that he had found himself saily mistaken. So he hegins to feel the "halter" draw, does he? Take him up and elect him by common consent. What for? To make speeches like those quoted by the Bullerin and himself as so no Saturday night. I felt with the "halter" draw, does he? Take him up and elect him his premain to consent. What for? To make speeches like those quoted by the Bullerin and his professed is present at the court house, that "the editor of the bullerin and the county." Mass does not make a bullerin the nagnanimity of such men as himself." Is that so. His speeches in Congress certainly do not prove it. Induced we can point to one place in the reconsecutive he said: "They shall wander mol-"eign land, or render up their securated "the country." Must be a mistake somewhere. Mr. Wanswornt asid in substance, in his speech Saturday night that "the editor of the Bullerin that happened more than twenty years ago, we still have a vivid recollection that many of the hardy seamen who were considered that the proper head bemorerate, it the thin referred, to endeavored to save their his speech Saturday night that "the editor of the proper head bemorerated that happened more than twenty years ago, the proper head bemorerated that happened more than twenty fears ago, the proper head bemore that the editor of the proper head bemore the proper head bemore the proper head bemore that the proper head bemore that the proper head bemore the proper able competitor of which he ought to feel ashamed.

On Saturday afternoon, about 1 o'clock, a tolerably well dressed man, appiled to Mr. Heiser, of the European Hotel, for his dinner, with the explanation that he had no money to pay for it. Mr. Heiser very kindly took him into the dining room and provided him with the regular dinner, which the stranger was in the act of eating when he fell back dead in act of eating when he fell back dead in his chair. Dr. Browning was called in as soon as possible, and upon an examination of the body expressed the opinion that he died from heart disease. The deceased was about five feet, nine inches in height, with brown hair and beard and apparently about forty-five years of age. From papers found on his person it appears that his name was John Sigz, and that he was a member of one of the Swiss colonies settled in the interior part of the State. A general letter of introduction among the papers showed that he visited this neighborhood, with, a view of Inducing some of our farmers to estabilish a creamery. He was recommended in the letter as a thoroughly competent and reliable person. The body was taken and reliable person. The body was taken and reliable person. The body was taken to Mr. Q., A.
